

a look back OVER MELODY'S TYPEWRITER PRINT

Melody has been putting her typewriter design on fabric since 2011, and she's introducing a fresh round of new colors this season on both cotton and canvas. She also made a large scale typewriter panel based on an art print she created last year.

In her collection Juicy, Melody included 5 colorways of her Hearts design. This season, she's following up with 5 brand new colors!

FROM RISE AND SHINE

FROM CAROUSEL

In 2023, Melody created her first big landscape print for her collection Rise and Shine. These prints take a lot of time and care; they're like putting together a big puzzle, and it's immensely satisfying when all of the elements come together. A year later, she was ready to do it again, and she made a second landscape print for her collection Carousel. And now, she has pulled all of her favorite things, from race cars to soft serve ice cream into one big print for Best Day Ever. This print is full of references to previous fabric collections. If you look hard, you'll see motifs from throughout her 15 years of designing fabric.
