

fan favorites, with some added fun!

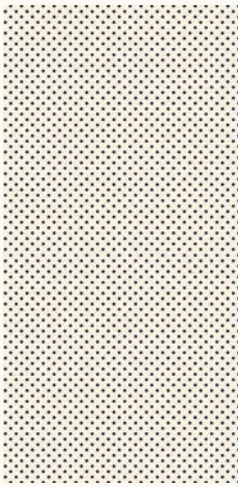

This collection all started with a new printing of Alexia's Tiger Stripes design. This is one of her most popular prints from her ten plus years of designing! She has brought back this print in four colorways just like the original printing but with a little update to coordinate each one with her current palette. The playful tiger cats inspired the rest of the collection's whimsical-meets-classic patchwork aesthetic.

A collection of seven fabric swatches arranged in a cluster. The swatches feature various patterns: a black fabric with small pink flowers and green stems; a light pink fabric with small white dots; a magenta fabric with small orange flowers and green stems; a light blue fabric with small white dots; a dark blue fabric with small pink flowers and green stems; a green fabric with small yellow and blue flowers and green stems; and a white fabric with small black dots. All swatches have a scalloped edge.
